

Geoffroy Goubin appointed Partner at Bougартchev Moyne Associés

Four years after its creation and to support the strong growth of its commercial litigation and corporate disputes activities, the founding partners of Bougартchev Moyne Associés are pleased to announce the appointment of Geoffroy Goubin as Partner on 1st January 2021.

This nomination reflects the firm's emphasis on pursuing growth by rewarding the excellent work accomplished by Geoffroy Goubin, who has been part of the firm since its creation. In this new role, he will actively participate in the development of commercial litigation and corporate disputes activities, in which he has already been heavily involved in recent years.

Geoffroy will continue to expand the firm's international scope. Close to 80% of its cases and disputes occurred outside of France and the firm intervened in 57 countries to date, thanks to its solid network of "best friends".

commercial litigation and white-collar crime has been particularly sought after. The firm has also distinguished itself in recent months in cases of unfair competition and abrupt termination of commercial relations.

"We are very proud to welcome Geoffroy as the firm's third partner. He is an extremely talented lawyer who is among the best of his generation. His nomination demonstrates our determination and ability to promote talent in spite of the current health situation. It reflects our confidence in the firm's future and the reinforcement of its positioning" state the two founding partners Kiril Bougартchev and Emmanuel Moyne.

The firm has recently been involved in numerous disputes between shareholders (shareholders' agreement, exclusion clause, abuse of majority/minority), in corporate litigation (earn-out, liability guarantee, abusive termination of negotiations, vote buying, fraud), and issues related to directors' liability, where the firm's dual expertise in Geoffroy GOUBIN, 35 years old, began his career as a lawyer in 2012 at Debevoise & Plimpton, within the Litigation and Arbitration department. In June 2014, at Linklaters, he joined the team led by Kiril Bougартchev, with Emmanuel Moyne, before participating in the creation of the law firm Bougартchev Moyne Associés on 1st January 2017.

Geoffroy assists French and foreign legal entities and individuals in their corporate law related disputes and white-collar crime matters. He intervenes before commercial, civil and criminal courts as well as in pre-litigation and settlement proceedings. He assists his clients in a wide variety of matters and litigations such as: shareholders' agreements, liabilities guarantee, fraud, corruption, tax evasion, money laundering, abuse of corporate assets, etc.

Rewarded as a "rising star" in white-collar crime for three years in a row (2018, 2019 and 2020) by Expert Guides magazine, Geoffroy Goubin was also cited in the 2020 edition of the Legal 500 Guide in white-collar crime and commercial litigation.

A graduate of Université Paris II Panthéon-Assas and ESCP Business School, Geoffroy Goubin became a member of the Paris Bar in 2012.
