#FOUNDERS

In 2017, after 30 and 20 years respectively of professional practice in major law firms and hundreds of trials, Kiril Bougartchev and Emmanuel Moyne chose to create an ambitious firm where independence, freedom, flexibility and adaptability are the order of the day. Bougartchev Moyne Associés is 5 years old this year.

#EXCELLENCE

Five years after its creation, the firm has succeeded. Today, it is one of the leading boutiques in the market in white collar crime and has an international reputation. Its activities in compliance, internal investigations, regulatory procedures and complex civil and commercial litigation are booming. It has received around one hundred awards in these various fields in five years and is listed by the most authoritative rankings as being either unavoidable or excellent in these same fields.

#INNOVATION

Innovation is at the heart of Bougartchev Moyne Associés' practice: Whether it is the first indictment by videoconference between France and the United States, the first use of an electronic bracelet in a financial case, the negotiation of the first transaction (CRPC) with the National Financial Prosecutor's Office or the obtaining of a groundbreaking ruling by the Criminal Chamber of the Court of Cassation preventing third parties from attending police criminal investigations, the firm has always been creative and will continue to promote innovative and pragmatic solutions in the interest of its clients.
